Department of Educational Studies
Lecturer in Education: English

The Department

The Department of Educational Studies is one of Goldsmiths' largest departments. It has a successful track record in international and funded research and distinguished publications, a thriving doctoral programme, large primary and secondary Initial Teacher Education programmes, as well as postgraduate and undergraduate programmes.

The Department has a unique and interdisciplinary focus on issues of identity and social justice; learning for multilingual and multicultural communities in disadvantaged urban contexts; the arts and learning including visual art education, drama education and children’s literature in education. We have for some time been working on decolonising both our curriculum and our processes. These central concerns run through our entire programme, from the BA in Education, Culture & Society to our various MA and PhD programmes, as well as forming the foundation for our PGCE programme. The strategy of focusing our degrees around these issues has allowed us to tie our teaching closely with department research priorities, and to align our work with Goldsmiths’ wider ethos.

The Department research specialisms are represented in three Research Centres: the Centre for Identities and Social Justice, The Centre for Language, Culture and Learning, and the Centre for Arts and Learning, which organise regular seminars and events.

The Department of Educational Studies offers the following programmes:

• PGCE Upper and Lower Primary full time programmes
• PGCE Secondary full time programme in eight subjects
• PGCE Secondary part time programme in three subjects
• MPhil and PhD Programme
• MA in Education: Culture, Language and Identity
• MA Arts and Learning
• MA Creative Writing and Education
• MA Multilingualism, Linguistics and Education
• MA Children’s Literature
• BA Education, Culture and Society

In addition, it has a strong involvement in ‘School Direct’ Initial Teacher Education (ITE), working with primary and secondary schools, as well as four thriving School-Centred Initial Teacher Training (SCITT) partnerships.

There are 42 full and part time academic staff, a team of 14 professional staff.
